

Trinity Sunday

First Sunday after Pentecost

“Trinity Sunday is not a recitation of an abstract theological construct nor an opportunity for the preacher to invite the congregation to consider his or her doctoral thesis. Trinity Sunday is, fundamentally, about inviting the congregation into the life of God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Trinity is like a dance that human beings are invited to share in.”

It's an invitation to experience God's love and share it with others.

Four Generations of my family

I Stand Amazed in the Presence of Jesus the Nazarene

How marvellous! How wonderful!

And my song shall ever be:

How marvellous! How wonderful!

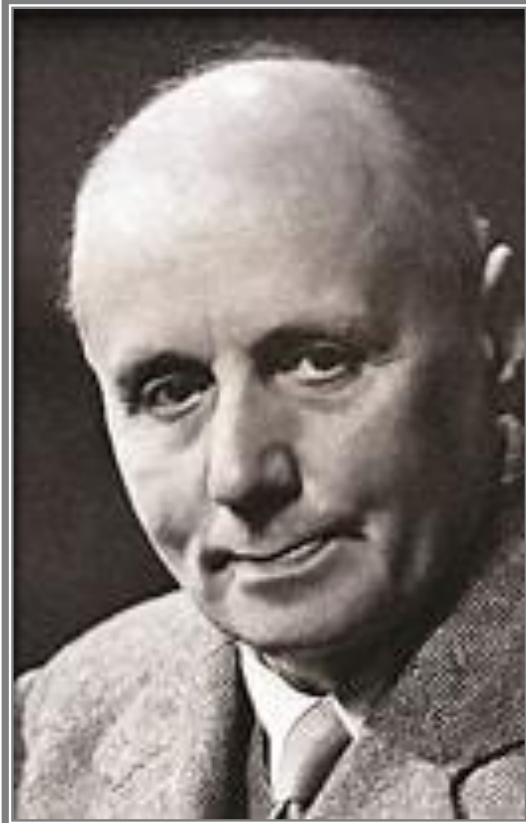

Is my Saviour's love for me!

You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. ”

Matthew 5:14-16

His message was: There is a light in you.

There is more to us than we know. If we can be made to see it, perhaps for the rest of our lives we will be unwilling to settle for less.

A vital truth

I was loved for being me, not for being successful, effective or useful. In the past I had experienced God's love as a spur to action. Now it was a cushion for me to lean on.

Solomon's prayer

Listen from your home
in heaven and honour
the prayers of the foreigner, so that people
all over the world will know who you are and what you're like..."

2 Chronicles 6:33

The Message

Naaman's servant girl

If only my master would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.

The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children.

Romans 8:16

Let's keep learning how to let God love us and how to love others as God loves us.

“ We cannot change the world except in so far as we have changed ourselves. We can only offer to others what God has done in us. We have no real head answers, we must be the answer. Only the forgiven can forgive, only the healed can heal, only those who stand daily in need of mercy can offer mercy to others. ”
